Dear Mrs. Manley:

Thank you for your check #908, for $73.00, in payment of final rent and for 13 towels not returned.

I have your description of the missing jacket and shall be on the look out for it. As I remember, the two boxes containing these jackets were sealed when we received them from the Wilson Sporting Goods Company, and were forwarded to you unopened. I am sure that Railway Express Agency would not have accepted them from us unsealed. Therefore, I would suggest that this matter be taken up with the Express Company.

Very truly yours,

E. B. Poole,
Business Manager.
